

Exhibitor Guide: Virtual Booth

OPPORTUNITIES

Jujama, an event technology provider, partners with events to create a members only networking application. With the latest pivot to virtual, Jujama has created several opportunities for Exhibitors to showcase their content using virtual booths. These virtual booths offer logo and advertisement visibility, upload of documents, videos, and products, and a chat now feature. Exhibitors can entice virtual attendees by offering downloads or even a chance to win a prize!

OPPORTUNITIES & SPECS

Each exhibitor profile can contain:

1. Logo: A company logo will display on the exhibitor list screen as well as on the exhibitor details screen. The preferred size is 400(w) x 130(h) pixels. If larger logos are provided, they will scale proportionately in the platform to the allotted space.
2. Company Bio: A detailed description along with optional location, social media link, and website fields.
3. Website Link: A website URL can be provided which will be available as a “Visit Website” button at the bottom of the profile.
4. Advertisement Image: If the event coordinator allows, advertisement images can be displayed as part of the exhibitor listing. This image allows for an extra area to show off additional company branding above your logo. Advertisement images should be provided as 1112(w) x 789(h) pixels. On the list view, this image will scale down, but on the exhibitor details profile page this images can display full size. Until an image is uploaded, a placeholder image will display by default.
5. Videos, Photos, and Documents: Each attendee that is part of the exhibitor company has the ability to upload videos, photos, and documents to the company profile from their My Account tab. If preferred, the first video uploaded can be displayed on the exhibitor details page in place of the advertisement image.
6. Chat Now Feature: The chat feature allows one attendee of the exhibitor company to designate themselves as the manager of the chat now feature. Event attendees can begin a chat from the exhibitor profile. The designated team member from the exhibitor company can manage these chats from the Messages tab.

The screenshot displays the 'Investment Day 2020' exhibitor profile for Prudential. The page header includes the event title, a search bar, and a user profile for Winifred Maggio. The breadcrumb trail shows 'Home > Exhibitors > Exhibitor Details'. The main content area features a video player with the title 'Prudential: Investing with a Purpose' and a cityscape background. Below the video is a navigation menu with tabs for 'About', 'Attendees', 'Photos', 'Videos', and 'Notes'. The 'About' tab is active, showing the Prudential logo and a company description: 'With operations in the United States, Asia, Europe and Latin America, we provide customers with a variety of products and services, including life insurance, annuities, retirement-related services, mutual funds and investment management. We strive to create long-term value for our stakeholders through strong business fundamentals, consistent with our mission guided by our vision and directed by our company's core values.' The company name 'Prudential' is listed at the bottom. On the right side, there is a 'Chat Now' section with a message from Winifred Maggio: 'I've been looking into using Prudential for our company retirement package. Can you send me some additional details?' and a response from another user: 'Hi Winifred! I'm glad you reached out. We have a very helpful brochure under the chat in the documents section. Also, can I ask for your email? I'd love to send an email with a package that might be helpful to you.' Below the chat is a text input field and a 'Send' button. At the bottom right, there is a 'Documents' section showing a file named 'ASCoreBroc.pdf' uploaded on Oct 22, 2020, with a size of 1 MB.

MANAGING EXHIBITOR CHAT

The chat feature allows one attendee of the exhibitor company to designate themselves as the manager of the chat now feature. To designate a team member for the exhibitor chat, follow the instructions below:

1. Login to the event networking application
2. From the menu on the left, select the messages tab
3. Team members connected to the exhibitor company will have an Exhibitor Chat Designation box at the top of the page. Check the box next to "Designate myself for chat" to mark yourself as the manager of the chat feature. Only one team member can be designated at a time. If that person becomes unavailable, to change the designation, they must uncheck the box so that a new team member can designate themselves.
4. Exhibitor chats can be managed from the messages tab and will be labeled as "From Exhibitor Chat". The designated team member will receive an email and in-app notification when a chat is received.

The screenshot displays the 'Investment Day 2020' messaging interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the event title, a search bar, and a user profile for 'Leland Beier'. Below this, the 'Messages' section is active, showing a breadcrumb 'Home > Messages'. A prominent 'Exhibitor Chat Designation' box contains instructions: 'As an exhibitor, one member from your team can designate themselves to accept messages from your exhibitor profile. To designate yourself for the exhibitor chat, please check the box below. Note: Only one team member can be marked to accept chat from this area at a time.' The checkbox 'Designate myself for chat' is checked. Below this, a search bar for 'Search person name or person company...' is visible. The chat list shows a conversation with 'Winifred Maggio'. The messages are: 'Winifred Maggio sent you a message Great! Thanks so much! 1 sec ago' (received), 'Winifred Maggio From Exhibitor Chat: I've been looking into using Prudential for our company retirement package. Can you send me some additional details? 4 mins ago' (sent), 'Leland Beier Hi Winifred! I'm glad you reached out. We have a very helpful brochure under the chat in the documents section. Also, can I ask for your email? I'd love to send an email with a package that might be helpful to you. 1 min ago' (received), and 'Winifred Maggio From Exhibitor Chat: Great! Thanks so much! 1 sec ago' (sent). A text input field at the bottom is labeled 'Write your reply here...'.

Important: It is up to the event organizer whether to allow for an advertisement image and the exhibitor chat feature. Please check with the event coordinator to see if these features will be available.
